

HOW ABOUT YOUR BACK YARD?

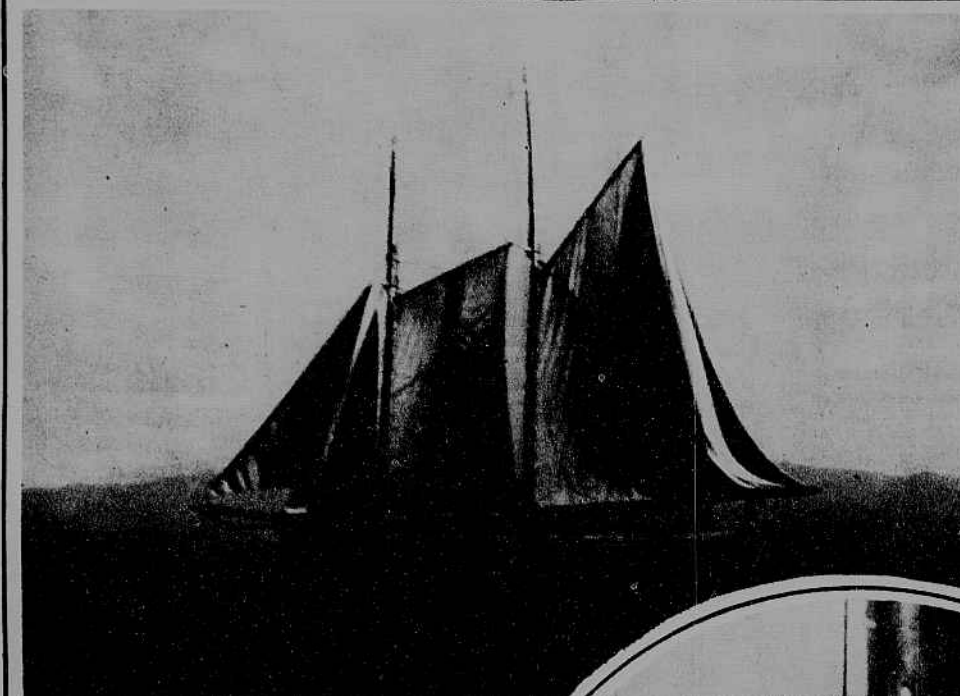

WHAT A DIFFERENCE JUST A FEW FLOWERS MAKE. The graphic exhibition of the City Garden's Club at the recent Grand Central Palace Flower Show—before and after scenes of a typical New York back yard—two interesting models that showed thousands how easy and effective it is to "say it with flowers."

MARGUERITA SYLVA, of the Chicago Opera, who will sing at a private showing of "Dream Street"—D. W. Griffith's screen dramatization of Limehouse Nights—at the home of Mrs. Vincent Astor on Wednesday evening next. The Belgian soprano who was introduced to American opera by Oscar Hammerstein is now actively engaged in organizing a benefit for the late impresario's wife.

ROBERT A. GREENFIELD, of Mt. Vernon, Grand Commander of the Knights Templar of New York State, who will lead the grand march of his order at their big charity ball in the 71st Regiment Armory next Wednesday evening. Mr. Greenfield recently participated in the Ohio ceremonies that made President Harding a Knight Templar.

LIKE BEGETS LIKE. Miss Alice Lord, the Brooklyn mermaid and one of America's Olympic swimming champions, whose engagement to R. W. Landon, of Yale, and winner of the high jump at the Olympic games, has recently been announced.
